SUBSCRIBERS ONLY CAN GET PAPERS OVERSEAS

New Postal Rules
Limit Sending Mail on Ships

The U. S. Postoffice Department has issued a ruling that no one can send newspapers to boys in the armed forces across the seas except the publisher, and the publisher can send them only to bona-fide subscribers.

This ruling has been broadcast over the radio, and is revealed in the following statement by Harry I. Sledd, Murray Postmaster, to patrons of the Murray Postoffice:

The Murray Postoffice has always been rather lenient in the matter of handling its patrons' mail.

This office is advised that the patrons must see that all their mail in the future carries either the street address or the P. O. Box number. In writing to friends in the armed forces, you must give your street address or your Postoffice Box number. Not only will this help the Postoffice clerks in giving you better service in dispatching your mail, but it will also help in placing your mail in the right boxes.

You realize that Murray and Callaway County have had a great number of strangers in their midst for the last several years, and some of these people will have names similar to our old residents' mail; you can readily see why this would cause some confusion in handling of the mail.

ALWAYS when you change your address, come to the Postoffice and call for a change of ADDRESS card. In this way we can keep up with the different moves. Don't just tell some carrier or employee of the Postoffice about your change, because they will more than likely forget same. FILL OUT CHANGE OF ADDRESS CARD.

The Post-Office department has advised all Postoffices that they cannot accept perishable goods for the boys across the sea. Do not try to send anything because if it gets by your local Postoffice it will be destroyed when it arrives at port of embarkation. At all times we are allowed to accept a package that weighs over five (5) pounds to any boy across the sea.

After this date (January 15, 1943), the Post-Office department will not be allowed to accept a paper going to your boy across the sea. No one but a publisher can send him a copy of the local paper, and then the boy must be a bona-fide subscriber of said paper.

Help your city carrier of your rural carrier by seeing that your mail box is kept in good repair.

Buy your stamps by the book, as this will help you keep them in good shape and ready for use.

The Rural Carrier is not supposed to pick up your change in mailing your letters. You can readily see how it would handicap him on a bad blustery day when he would have to stop and make change for you. Do your part in helping your carrier make his round just as quickly as possible.

I have made the different routes with the rural carriers out of the Murray Postoffice and I have found small bridges on the routes that are bad, and in many instances almost impassable. These bridges are too small to be looked after by your Magistrate, so they are left to fall through. You would hate to have your carrier arrange his route over a road that is kept in better repair, and miss delivering your mail in front of your house. After the change is made it will be too late to complain to the Department because it will not be done until the Postoffice Inspector has looked over, and recommended same.

If you have complaints to make with the service you are getting, this office will at all times like to hear your story, and I promise you that I will try my best to correct any mistakes we are making.

616 Students Enroll at Murray

Murray State's enrollment for the 1942-43 school year, which opened January 6, has reached 616 college students.

"I consider this enrollment, in view of the unusual circumstances, the most remarkable in the history of Murray College," Dr. James H. Richmond, president, said.

Two years ago—in peacetime—Murray's enrollment was 1,170, but even that record, in the opinion of the president, is eclipsed by the present registration.

The 616 students include the 19 who are enrolled at Paducah, but who are officially accredited as "resident" students of Murray.

Crops from Farms

The Murray tobacco market showed indications of becoming slightly stronger toward the end of the second week. Averages rose some as sales continued.

More than one and one-half million pounds crossed the four floors during the first two weeks. Sales amounted to 1,063,820 pounds at an average of $11.31 for the two weeks and tobacco pooled amounted to 432,460 at an average of $18.21.

Yesterday little tobacco reached the market. Sales amounted to 25,560 pounds at an average of $12.14 and pooled tobacco amounted to 9830 pounds at an average of $16.31.

Snuff buyers still remain pretty much inactive, while sales of tobacco remain strong. High bid sales, however, are assuring farmers of a good price whether their tobacco is sold or pooled.

Sales Monday and Tuesday of this week were as follows:

Monday Sales
Growers 25,170 lbs. $14.48
Outland 25,420 lbs. $11.75
Farris 37,365 lbs. $12.63
Doran 47,050 lbs. $12.24
Total 135,005 lbs. $12.68

Tuesday Sales
Growers 14,875 lbs. $13.50
Outland 23,465 lbs. $13.23
Farris 12,460 lbs. $11.40
Doran 28,795 lbs. $10.73
Total 77,595 lbs. $12.13

Monday 49,450 pounds were pooled at $19.48 average. Tuesday 50,325 pounds were pooled at $19.17 average. Sales last week averaged $11.71; the week before, $11.05. Pooled tobacco averaged $19.10 last week; $19.28 the week before.

Nursery To Start Here
Wednesday

The nursery will begin operating in Murray Wednesday of next week, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Langstaff, who is with the WPA child welfare program and is in charge of starting the child day care center in Murray. The nursery is to be for children ages 2 to 5, of mothers who are working.

An enrollment of 16 is expected the first day and this is expected to increase later.

The city board of education has donated $50 for equipment, and the city of Murray is providing the rent, it is understood. The nursery is to be housed in the Sunday School building of the First Christian church.

Supervisors of the nursery will be Mrs. C. C. Thompson. She went to Louisville Sunday to take a three weeks' course at the University of Louisville before taking charge. The two teachers are to be Mrs. J. J. Howell and Mrs. W. J. Gibson. A maid and a cook will complete the staff.

The project is now under WPA, but will be placed under the Lantham act when WPA is abolished.

Increase In Milk Prices Authorized

The Office of Price Administration yesterday authorized an increase in the price of Grade A milk in Callaway county. It was announced yesterday. The retail price was set at 13 1/2 c per quart and 11 1/2 c wholesale price.

The Murray Milk Products Company stated that no official communication had been received on the price boost. The increase was part of an order adjusting milk prices all over Kentucky.

The order cited a present and anticipated further shortage of pasteurized and raw fluid whole milk. Manufacturers, it was pointed out, have raised prices paid producers in Kentucky from 24 cents a hundredweight upward.

250 CADETS IN TRAINING HERE USE 'SEA TALK'

Eat 'Chow,' Live In Barracks; Soon To Have Uniforms

The United States Naval Flight Preparatory School at Murray College under the command of Lieut. Charles L. Wiley is now in full swing with 250 cadets undergoing preparatory training toward winning "Wings of Gold" in the U. S. Navy.

Besides Lieutenant Wiley, other officers here include: Lieut. (jg) John S. Bedford, executive officer; Lieut. W. O. Eakin, physical training officer; and Lieut. Commander M. C. Lynch, medical corps (ship's surgeon).

The ship's company includes: R. C. Bishop, Yeoman; William Barfield, Pharmacist; and J. J. McCollum, Sk2c.

The battalion arrived by special train Wednesday, January 6, and the school officially opened for work on January 7. The cadets are quartered in Wells Hall, known as "the Barracks." The liberal arts building, known as the Naval Administration Building, is utilized for classrooms and for officers' headquarters.

Of the 250 cadets now on the campus, 200 are "brand new," according to Lieutenant Wiley. Fifty have had civilian pilot training. Under present plans, the group will remain approximately three months before they are sent elsewhere for a flight program. Others will be sent here for similar training.

"Highly Selected"

"These cadets are highly selected and have passed rigorous physical and mental tests," Lieutenant Wiley stated. "They are all training to become officers and will conduct themselves as officers and gentlemen at all times."

Five states are represented by the present battalion: Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, and Missouri. The cadets will soon be provided with uniforms—blue winter cadet dress, white summer dress, and appropriate work uniforms while on duty.

Here is a typical program in the life of the cadet at Murray: 0630—Reveille, wash, straighten bunk. 0640—Chow, return to room, shave, shower, study, get "roomed away" for morning activities. 0720—Muster for marching to respective classes—math, physics, aircraft recognition, theory of flight, aerology, power plants, etc. 1100—Muster for noon chow, lounge until 1245. 1300—Muster for afternoon "wing" activities. Ten minutes allowed between classes for "smudge" (navy lingo for "smoke"). 1600—Classes secured. 1700—Muster for evening chow. 2115—Call to quarters.

2130—Taps.

The first liberty is on Saturday night, 1700 to 2300. They are not required to attend evening chow on that night. Church calls are met with the Catholics mustering at 0845 and the Protestants at 1015. Liberty on Sunday is from 1300 to 2130. At no time is smoking permitted while the church pennant is flying (1000 to 1200). Rigid rules relative to time and place.

• YOUR PENNIES AND THE COPPER ROUND-UP •

An effort to induce the return to circulation of many millions of small coins, which are tying up strategic metals by lying unused in small banks, glass jars, etc., is being made by the Treasury Department of the United States.

A letter from the U. S. Mint stated: "It should be made clear that the request is simply that idle coins be put back into circulation, not that they be returned to the mint or elsewhere for melting."

It is important that it be understood that for every coin hidden away, the mint must make another to replace it, for the country must have coin to carry on the war program, and all its other business affairs.

"Our concern in the mint is about 1-cent pieces particularly, for which there is now an enormous demand occasioned by state sales taxes, federal excise taxes, vending machines, and various other factors. Last year the mint used 4,000 tons of copper in the production of the 1-cent piece alone . . . such a heavy demand upon critical materials will not again be necessary if men, women, and children can be induced to convert their penny savings into war savings stamps, or even into coins of a larger denomination, of which there is an ample supply. In any case, the important thing is for them to get the pennies back into circulation—through the banks, corner groceries, or elsewhere in the market place."

Evidence of the amount of cooperation possible in the Treasury Department's program is the fact that one college professor in Pittsburgh garnered in and got into circulation on his own initiative 113,000 pennies in about three weeks from students and associate faculty members.

The government is conducting a "copper recovery program" to obtain 45 million idle copper as possible to put into war manufacturing. Pennies are in one way a part of this program, but in another way, idle pennies are badly needed to keep up circulation of money, which at present is the largest in history. During the week ending December 16, 1942, for example, circulation of money reached the record-breaking total of $15,000,000,000 in this country. A certain share of that money must be pennies.

Your problem is to get those pennies out of your piggy bank and get them into circulation. The government's part is to put more pennies into circulation. This will begin February 1 with the manufacture of new pennies made of steel and coated with zinc. The minting of the present copper penny began in 1809. It is now copper. Its manufacture was stopped the first day of this year. The new steel penny will be the same size and design as the copper penny, but will weigh slightly less. It will have a blue-gray cast, but will tend to become dull with circulation. It is also possible that a three-cent coin will be minted before the year ends.

DO THIS! To relieve discomforts, one of the best things you can do is put a good spoonful of home-made VapoRub in a bowl of boiling water. Then feel the wonderful relief come as you breathe in the steam. The medicated vapors that penetrate to the cold-congested upper breathing passages! See how this soothing irritation opens coughing, and helps clear the throat-bringing grand comfort. For every aching, rub throat, chest and head with VapoRub at bedtime. RETONGA A BLESSING SAYS REV. WITT BAKER

Had Lived On Soft Foods And Felt So Weak He Feared He Would Have To Retire. Feels Fine Now.

One of the outstanding features about Retonga is the extraordinary number of ministers who strongly endorse this noted medicine after trying it in their own cases. For instance, Rev. Witt Baker, prominent Methodist minister, residing at Burkeville, Ky., declares:

"I was afraid to eat a bite of solid food, for the little I did eat seemed to turn as sour as vinegar and come back up so strong it seemed to burn my throat. At times I bloated so tight with gas I would get weak all over. For a year or more I lived on soft foods, eggs, and milk. I had to take a strong purgative regularly, and at times my joints felt so achy and stiff I could hardly get up and down. I was too nervous to sleep much. I felt too weak to do the chores about my home, and it looked like I would have to give up my church work."

Retonga relieved all this distress after everything else I tried had failed. I was soon eating heartily, the nervousness, soreness in my muscles, and sluggish elimination were relieved, and I feel so much better there's no comparison. This grand medicine was a godsend in my case."

"Retonga is a purely herbal gas-tic tonic combined with liberal amounts of Vitamin B-1. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at WHitts Drug—Adv.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Samuel C. McKee, Pastor

Our Sunday School beginning at 9:45 will open a new class next Sunday—a class for high school boys. Mr. Donald Stroud will be the teacher.

At the Morning Worship Service, 11:00 a.m., the sermon theme will be "Does God Really Forgive Sins?"

The Westminster Fellowship meets at 7:15 in the evening. Prayer Meeting is held each Wednesday night in the Manse at 7:15.

Question: How is one to join the Presbyterian Church?

Answer: Speak to an elder or to the pastor. He will arrange for a meeting of the Session. Here the actual election to membership takes place, after a friendly interview to insure understanding of the significance of church membership. Then follows baptism, if not baptized in infancy.

Joining the church helps to contribute to the building of the Kingdom of God in this generation. Our church is not austere but eager to gather all who would come, into our fellowship in Christ.

IMPROVED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JESUS THE GREAT PHYSICIAN
LESSON TEXT—John 8:1-7.
GOLDEN TEXT—Wilt thou be made whole?—John 8:12.

Hope of the hopeless, help of the helpless—these were the things that Jesus came to do for the people. He did not seek out the homes of the mighty, the places of learning and culture, but he sought out the people of the masses, where there "lay a multitude of them that were sick, blind, lame, withered." Why did He go to such a place? Because He always had compassion upon those in need.

In this multitude He saw at once the neediest man of all—one without friends or loved ones to care for him, dependent and debilitated. What happened that day may well encourage the heart of every sad, lonely, and discouraged one.

We see three things here.

I. Hopeless Infirmary (vv. 1-7). How weak and helpless is humanity. Oh, yes, we seem to be strong, capable, fearless, but only until we meet some great elemental problem. Then we see that we are indeed a great multitude of impotent folk. The gently falling snow stopped the undefeated Napoleon. The silent fog can paralyze a nation. Sickness, death—who can stay their hands? We need the steady and powerful grip of God upon our lives if we are to go through such experiences. Not only was this man ill and weak, but his long years of suffering had made him so accustomed to weakness that he had reached a state of despair. He said: "Such an attitude invites defeat. It may be the only recourse of a man of the world, but with Jesus standing by to help, there is good reason to believe that in the darkest hour."

In the face of his need—yes, even in the light of Jesus' provision for that need—the leaders of the Jews could only cry: "Who can stay their hands? We need the steady and powerful grip of God upon our lives if we are to go through such experiences. Not only was this man ill and weak, but his long years of suffering had made him so accustomed to weakness that he had reached a state of despair. He said: "Such an attitude invites defeat. It may be the only recourse of a man of the world, but with Jesus standing by to help, there is good reason to believe that in the darkest hour."

II. Heartless Religion (vv. 10-13, 15-16). Jesus had done for the man what the Jews had not been able to do. In fact, one wonders whether they had to much as lifted a finger to help this poor sufferer. But now that he was able to walk, they were greatly concerned about the violation of their Sabbath day restriction against any work.

Instead of shouting for joy that this man was able to carry not only himself but his bed, they became zealous about maintaining the letter of their law.

Are there not those in our day who are so greatly disturbed by the deathliness and dignity of their church services were to be broken by the cry of a new born babe in Christ? Would a revival be welcomed in the great churches of America which have lost the saving of Christ and the power of the Gospel? We think not.

The man who had been healed, Jesus well (vv. 11, 12) He did not know who Jesus was, but he knew that if He had authority to heal, He also had the right to tell him to carry his bed. When we meet Jesus we will be healed of our infirmities and, like this man, be delivered from the fear of cold ecclesiasticalism.

But let us turn to the heart of our lesson, which is the act of Jesus in giving him

III. Healing of Body and Soul (vv. 8, 9, 14). The body of this man was miraculously healed. There was no partial improvement, no long drawn out convalescence and regaining of strength. In fact, he was told to do something which called for the full vigor of a healthy body, to show that he was healed.

Even so when we are healed from sin it is not to a half-dead existence, but to the full vigor of spiritual life. We are to arise and walk in the power and grace which Christ has brought into our lives.

Note that the miracle performed here was for the glory of God. The miracles of God are not mere marvels or wonders. They are not for the advancement of the cause of any man or for personal glory. They are the mighty signs of an omnipotent God wrought for the good of men, for their spiritual enlightenment, and as a testimony to the one true God.

So in this case Jesus found the man in the temple to admonish him to continue steadfast in the spiritual liberty which had come to him "lest a worse thing befall" him.

Evidently this man's infirmity had been caused by sin, and even though he had suffered thus 38 long years the tendency toward sin was still alive in his heart. Sin dies hard. How often have we not seen those who have cried to God out of their affliction, promising all sorts of spiritual changes if God will deliver them. When He does, they go right back to their old ways. The one who does this may well be looking for the "worse thing" which will surely befall him.

Be Gentle to the Sensitive Charge Customer

They put easily, their skins are thin, nerves exposed—all caused by their neglect to meet their obligations when they have the money. Washington has shortened up credit time, and all know the rubs. Many thin skins will not spend cash with the store where they have been extended credit, while some will spend cash where they have been extended favors.

Quite a few are paying old accounts because they are making money now and appreciate past favors. No time in my career as a retailer, now 48 years, has it been easier to pay up and clear the old obligations and still have money to buy the things available at the present time. But for the ceiling prices, one would be paying double for everything they buy, so why not make an effort to settle old accounts?—which favors came when times were very hard.

"At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly" were softly played during the pledging of the vows. Miss Martha Jo Crass attended her sister as maid of honor, and Fred Shultz, Jr., served as best man.

The bride wore a Dora original street dress of seafoam-green alpaca with metallic trim, accented by a wide gold bracelet. She wore a corsage of orchids. Her sister wore a similar street dress of Florida gold alpaca with Irish crochet trim, and a corsage of gerberas. The mother of the bride wore black Romaine crepe trimmed with sequins and a corsage of red carnations. The groom's mother wore powder blue crepe with sequin trim and a corsage of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left on a short unannounced wedding trip.

Murray Club Women Buying War Bonds

As a part of "Women At War Week" which was observed in November, members of women's organizations of Murray made a survey of the town to ascertain approximately the amount of war bonds being bought. Results of that survey have recently been made public. It is estimated that a total of $5,358.60 is being pledged monthly by members of various women's organizations of the town. A commendable amount in small pledges, is being received regularly from pupils and residents in the vicinity of Douglas High School.

Among the Murray Women's Club members it is estimated that approximately $70,284 worth of bonds is now owned by members and their husbands and families. Approximately ninety per cent of the club members are regular purchasers. In the last issue of the National Federated Women's Club magazine, the Murray club is placed on the honor roll as having completed the raising of funds for the nurse's scholarship, this being the only club in Kentucky to have done so. The fact was also mentioned that the Murray Women's club was taking the lead in promoting courses in nursing and Nurse's Aide in the war effort. Mrs. A. F. Doran is general chairman of war work for the club.

Hilltoppers Down Murray Netters 56-33

The Murray Thoroughbreds were given a thorough trouncing last night at Bowling Green by their traditional rivals, the Western Hilltoppers, who walked away with the net game by a score of 56 to 33.

The Hilltoppers started off with a whirlwind of scoring, leading 13 to 2 in the first six minutes of play. In the second quarter they obtained a 23 point lead, which the Thoroughbreds were never able to overcome, although the Murray boys began to play some real basketball during the second half.

Fulks was high scorer for Murray with 10 points and McKinney was high for Western with 16 points.

The game was phonetic to Murray from Bowling Green. A return game will be played between the two teams here February 17.

Tomorrow night, the Thoroughbreds play the 36th Armored Regiment team from Camp Campbell in the health building.
